Musical Service at Broadway Church.
On Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock the choir of Broadway church will give the cantata "The Temptation," by Frank S. Hastings. This will be the last vesper service for this season.

A Norwich Favorite at the Auditorium
The management of the Auditorium has engaged for the week of May 9th an act that should prove a great drawing card as well as an unqualified hit in Uncle Seth and the Hoodoo, presented by Harry Morse and his associate players. Harry Morse will be remembered as the interlocutor and bass soloist of Lew Dockstader's minstrels and as playing the title role in David Harum. Miss Olive Alberta as Kitty Calcium and Katherine Austin as Carrie Goodwin make up the rest of the hilarious comedy. Charles DeCamo and his dog Cora present an act which demonstrates canine intelligence at its best. Cora doing mental experiments which prove the thinking and reasoning power of a dog. For those who are musically inclined Esmeralda, the greatest lady xylophonist, will appear specially. Wilbur and Gilbert in A Tangle in a Flat have a singing comedy act that is one long loud laugh. The motion pictures are steadily moving onward up to the top of the world as Transfusion, by the Imp. Co., the Biograph's only rival, mark a stepping stone to better reels to come. Don't miss seeing She's Done It Again, last time today.

BREED THEATER.

The Way of the World, Beautiful Biograph Feature.

One of the most impressive pictures seen at the Breed theater this season is the superbly artistic picture by the Biograph company entitled The Way of the World. This is the familiar yet pathetic story of the persecuted Magdalene of the olden times fitted to a modern character and told in the dusky shadows of the beautiful and historic old San Gabriel mission of California. The picture opens with the ringing of the angelus upon the pious old bells suspended in the niches of the mission, calling the faithful ones to prayer, and it is doubtful if this scene has its equal in any motion picture of the day. The faithful are few, and the young curate goes out into the world, dressed in the garb of a civilian, in search of fallen ones, and is rewarded by finding a young woman who has just been ejected from a dance hall and having no place to go. The curate finds a room for her, but upon seeing her the landlady misconstrues his intentions and refuses to receive her and she follows the curate to the mission, where she is at last received. Mr. Farrell delivers a touching address upon the picture while it is being shown and thoroughly delights his many hearers.

Mr. Irving F. Joy, the new tenor, sings By the Light of the Silvery Moon, which makes a pronounced hit.

CHURCH SERVICES.

The Christian Science subject Sunday morning is Adam and Fallen Man.

The Loyal Temperance association meets in the Bill block Sunday afternoon.
